

Communication Reminders

We are pleased you are starting treatment in our office and want to help you with this addition to your already busy schedule. We try to schedule convenient appointment times for you, but occasionally schedules change, or appointment times are forgotten and we need to get in touch with you. You can change the way you wish to be communicated with at any time by contacting our office.

Help us reach you by selecting the forms of communication you want us to use:

No reminders please

Email: _____

Text message: _____ Cell phone carrier: _____

At my request I grant the office permission to fax information. I am aware that the fax can be read by people other than the responsible party and may contain treatment or financial information. Faxes will be sent only at the request of the responsible party to the fax number provided.

Signature: _____ Date: _____